Political No 23.

Jerusalem. December 2. 1861.

My Lord.

I have the honor to state that my French Colleague expects the arrival here in the Spring of Prince Napoleon and the Prince of Saxe-Coburg

M. de Camille is never sanguine in such expectations, but on

of Jerusalem
1861

At this occasion he believes there can be no doubt of the intention being entertained in high quarters.

It would seem to be politically desirable for Prince Napoleon to come here after the Count de Paris and the Count de Chambord the feeling in favour of the latter being still very strong in the Latin Convents.

I have the honor
