Is it in the power of the Censorship to claim any book to which on any ground, — especially that it is well illustrated. — the Turkish Govt. may take exception. — say to the writings of Lord Byron?

At all events may I beg you to be kind enough to take steps to get our great Milton removed from the pillory & so to get restored to us the confiscated volumes.

Sir,

With reference to my despatch No. 25 of the 13th ultimo, I have the honour to report to your Excellency that Monsignor Arsenios arrived here on the 8th instant, as the newly appointed Russian Archimandrite in Jerusalem.

Your Excellency
The Right Hon^{ble}
Sir Philip Currie G. C. B.
&c. &c.

Monsignor

Monsignor Arsenios was, I am informed, for seven years attached to the Russian Embassy at Constantinople, as Chaplain, and is reported to be a man of ability and intelligence, though perhaps he may not have the same amount of tact and experience as his late predecessor, who had acquired a considerable reputation for

the judicious manner in which he had managed the affairs of the Russian Church in Palestine.

I have the honour to be,
With the highest respect,

Sir,
Your Excellency's
Most Obedient
Humble servant.
