Sir.

I have the honor to inform Your Excellency that Hafiz Pasha arrived in Jerusalem on Thursday last, the 30th of October.

Adhem Pasha in leaving us, bears the character of official weaknes. - and of not having accepted bribes in the common sense of the word here - but of having amassed large sums as presents from the Convents during their disputes.

It is only since his departure that I have heard him popularly accused

Sir.

I have the honor to offer a few remarks on the condition of Palestine in general.

Having recently perused a book called Turkey and its Destiny, I could not but remark mentally as I proceeded, on the contrast existing between the condition there portrayed of the provinces of Asia minor, and that of this country.
